Wedding Wines

Dear Prospective Client!

From everyone at Nokhrin Wines, please accept our warm congratulations on your upcoming wedding!

We also have recently had the wonderful opportunity to work with the Kiezebrinks and the team at Nestleton for a wedding in our family, and are very excited that you've selected this wonderful Inn as your venue of choice as well!

Nokhrin Wines is a family-run wine agency based in Toronto. We started working with French wines in 2005 and today represent wineries from across France, Australia, Austria and Portugal. With years of experience hosting wine events, we have a thorough understanding of the needs of our clients, especially at an important time like this. The wines we represent are not generally available through the LCBO, and as such we're able to offer you something special for your special day.

As part of our service, we will meet with you to discuss your tastes and preferences, your food menu, as well as your budget, and propose several options that would suit your needs. Please note that while our wines are exclusive, we also carry a great selection of wines at prices similar to those found at the LCBO!

The following is a small sample of our wines:
